A Vast Wasteland Publication

Notices:

The following subs expire this issue:

Ron Kelly, Glenn Ledder, please renew. $.25 per issue/ 10 for $2.50.

The Postal Tournament is still open. there are only 35 signed to play and minimum to start is 49. Diplomacy World is carrying a plug, so I will wait for two weeks after Diplomacy World comes out. If sufficient players have not signed by that time, everyone who has paid will receive a refund. Novices are welcome.

Jack Brawner, address inside still has 3 openings for WW IIIb, my 15 player variant. I only have 3 map left, so please don't request one unless you plan to play. Maps are $2.00. Jack is not charging a game fee, merely a sub. So if you're already playing in Flying Dutchman, this is a good deal, if you're not, Flying Dutchman is one of the best new zines.

Standbys were greatly used this issue. If I haven't called on you, and you do wish to be a standby, let me know. The only remaining ones I have are Ron Kelly and George Pyfrom. And since they are already in a lot of position it limits the number of games I have standbys for.

You can still volunteer to standby for the Tournament. I already have 3 volunteers, which I think will be plenty, but you never can tell.

Dave Bunke has announced the folding of Ninth Circle. That leaves Dragon and the Lamb as the last of the group I started with. They were good zines, and it seems a shame that they are folding. This is poorly worded, I realized. Dragon and the Lamb has NOT folded. It's still going strong. Although I can't seem to do any good in it.

Bernie Oaklyn has lately taken to lumping me in with the group which seems to be trying to drive him out of the hobby. Because I won't stab my ally. I have nothing against Bernie's playing in zines, but I refuse to stab an ally just to prove I'm not against Bernie Oaklyn as a player.

Thats about it for this issue. If you find any errors, please let me know about them immediately, so I can notify all players in the game.

Notes: The USA Build in NWT was disallowed because although you can build in any neutral center you own, you cannot build in a center that was formerly a home supply center of another country. Also, you cannot retreat a unit otb, unless the unit is dislodged. Otherwise you would, in effect be receiving an extra move for that unit.
